HORRIBLE CRIMES. ARREST OF DR. J. A. P. BAKER AND MRS.

WYNDHAM R. GILMER. Discovery of a Revolting Conspiracy, Wife-Murder, and the Attempted Murder of a Betrayed Husband. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

ABINGDON, Va., May 5 .- The sensation sed by the arrest of Dr. John A. P. aker, in this town, and Mrs. Wyndham limer at the house of her husband near gomers, on Sunday afternoon, is inde-ble. Nothing else is talked of from one nd of the county to the other. Dr. Baker is barged with uxoricide and being an accessory of Mrs. Gilmer in an attempt to rid herself of her husband by poison. ORIGIN OF THE DISCLOSURE.

ORIGIN OF THE DISCIDENCE.

The discovery of r batch of old letters in the late dwelling of Dr. Baker, near Montgomery, a half mile west of here, led to the disclosure of this horribe crime and reveals a long criminal intimacy between the accused parties. Mrs. Gilmer is said to have confessed to all, and tells of a most revolting conspiracy—one the human mind would seem almost incapable of conceiving. The preliminary hearing will be held here to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

DIL BARRE IN JAIL. Owing to the prominence of the two families over thing has been kept as quiet as possible. It is also as a possible of the two families of the two families on John A. Buchanan and James L. White, the two been retained as counsel.

MRS. GILMEN'S CONFESSION.

It is reported that in her confession before Magistrate Cunningham yesterday Mrs. Gilmer, in substance, stated that she was assaulted by Baker five years ago, during the absence of her husband, while recovering from an litness, and since then she has been completely under his power and subservient to his will.

A CRIMINAL COMPACT.

They contracted that he should rid himself of bis wife and she of her husband, and then they were to be married. Mrs. Baker died almost two Years ago.

She further stated that Baker had left poison to be administored to her husband by her in moderate doses, so that sudden death would arouse no suspicion.

DIS LIFE BAYED. The inaddous poison did its work faithfully and Glimer approached nearer the laws of the grave every day, when his brother, Dr. Scott Glimer, of Russell, paid a timely visit and saved his brother's life. The trial will be of a most sensational character.

THE ACCUSED PAIR. Dr. Baker is fifty years of age, of fine appearance, five feet ten inches tall, and weighs 290 pounds. He has two grown som and two daughters. Mrs. Glimer was Miss Margaret Cecil, of Pulaski county, Va., a blonde of preposessing appearance, about thirty-five years of age. She is an accomplished woman, of great intelligence, and has five children. Mr. Glimer is a substantial farmer and highly exceened citizen.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) (Correspondence of the Richmend Dispatch.)
CLINIWOOD, VA., May 2.—Mr. James Swindal, who lives near this village, was recently married the tourth time at the age of thirty-eight years. His first wife was a Miss Vanover, with whom he lived some six or seven years, when she died. Then he married a Miss Stanley, who died at the end of two years. He then married Miss Stanley number two, sister to his former wife, but she died in three months from the marriage. His next and lass matrimonial venture was to marry a Miss Hibblits, near his own age.

A PHILOSOPHER. A PHILOSOPHER.

Wesley Vanover, formerly of Dickenson but now of Logan county, W. Va., came here on a visit to relatives a short time ago, and while here he went over into Wise county and purchased a fine stallion—of the long-cared species—giving his mare, valued at $125, and his note for $125 more. Mr. Vanover, happy in the possession of his new treasure, started for home; but the animal, which was isane from the start, grow worse, until by the time he got within a few miles of this place he could not travel at all. Then the once-happy man knocked the animal's brains out with a sharp-contect rock, and rolling the dead carcass out of the road tradged on wearily toward his destination, building no more air-castles. MIXED POLITICS.

There is some talk of the election within the last few days; but politics do not seem to figure much in the matter. There are only two caulidates for Cemmonwealth's atterney, Lib Fulton a Demo-rat, and James Damron a Republican. Isaa Ross, who was nominated by the Farmer's Alliance, would not accept. There are seven candidates for sheriff; one Alliance candidate, five Democrats, and one Republican. It looks as if the Republican would have the "go" on them. There was never a better prespect for fruit in this county than at present.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] Increasing the segram to the Dispatch.]

Lynchaung, Va., May 5.—George W. Old, one of the oldest and most highly-respected residents of Amherst county, died on Sunday at the advanced age of eighty-six years. His wife preceded him to the grave but a few weeks. Mrs. Matilda Ward, a well-known lady, died at her home in the Burten's Creek neighborhood in Campbell county last night. Deceased was aged eighty-three years.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., May 4.—Thomas J.

McCracken, who was recently tried at Fredericksburg for the murder of his father and adjudged inasne by the fury upon the evidence of medical experts, arrived here yesterday at the Insane asylum in charge of Special-Officer Albert Bloxton. As he was driven up from the rollway stati n he was enjoying a cigar and wore an air of perfect indifference. It has been known here for several days that McCracken would be brought to this asylum, and that his relatives wore exceedingly anxious to get him out of the Fredericksburg jail as soon as possible. Upon his arrival at the institution he was locked up, and appeared to be quite well satisfied with his now quarters, and as an asylum officer put if,
"talked as rational as any one, and did not see anything crazy about him."

The ticket is not regarded as a very strong one and the chances are more than even that the Democratic ticket, or at least a greater portion of it, will be successful.
